POLICE COURT.

GEO. W. JOHNSTON, Judge.

TUESDAY, July
DRECK AND DISORDERLY—Michael Dalton

was in arrest and presented on the charge, in addition to which it was alleged that he had been in the habit of carrying a razor, threatening to cut them up like a chineese. Bail of $100 was required for his arrest.

DISORDERLY WOMAN.—Mrs. Martha Pryor, also, supposed to be under a spiritual influence, was also absorbing, was presented for another charge, and bail of $100 was required for two months' arrest.

DRUNKEN PLATONIAN.—W. H. Mirinda, a well known and respected citizen, a well known muzzled chap, who came down the river with a locomotive, was presented for his arrest, and bail of $100 was required, as he hadn't much to say, excepting to deny he was drunk, but bail of $100 was required for his arrest.

SENDING A CHALLENGE.—DEPTING THE CHIEF. P. Reeder, Jr., quite a youth, and another young fellow, who had been in the habit of sending a challenge to the Chief of Police to meet him for a mortal combat, and the latter for bearing him down, and the former for being afraid, were charged that some time yesterday he had arrested tain parties, when Reader interfered, and was so far as to put his hands upon him, who knocked him down. Subsequently he received a message from the young man, challenging him to get him with deadly weapons, giving him the privilege to name the weapons, time, and place. Stating that he, the Chief, had insulted him to know, and that he, being a small man, could not win in no other way than a resort to deadly weapons. The Chief, on receiving said challenge, it with contempt, but on second thought decided to arrest the parties, commencing with the younger. The parties are young men, and probably not aware of the enormity of the offense they had committed against the law by sending a challenge. The principal, it was alleged, was drunk at the time—not in his right mind, and amenable to law for the offense. The Chief Justice, on the other hand, was of opinion that the choice of weapons, and as in duty bound, comto fight him with the slut. The penalty is offense is fine and imprisonment, and disbursement for seven years. The greater offense looked over, and each was held to bail for good and peaceable behavior six months, and of $300.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—Young Buck, one of the fast boys who has traveled much, was seen about midnight last night by Officer Seay at unprecise way in and out of coffee.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY.—John McBride, as presented for partaking, as usual, of a drink of whisky than he could manage, which made him knock his wife from the top of the stairs to the ground.

tom, where she was taken up for dead. He ought to stay on the ground floor, and the wisky never get the chance to knock her downstairs. He is a hard case at best, and fights either for the wisky or his wife all the time. She had tapped him on the head with a brickbat, while he was drinking all the wisky out of the bottle with a view to getting her her share. He says she was drunk and fell down stairs, but bail was required of

SUSPECTED FELON—STEALING A WATCH.—Mr. Maxwell, the young man presented yesterday as an unsuspected felon, and continued till to-day, examined again this morning, the charge of stealing a gold watch, from his brother-in-law, being added. The latter testified that he had traded the watch, which cost him $50, and sold it to a wife, who had taken a fancy to it. It is a sister's watch, and the wife of witness had no lay in a trunk, or bureau, for safe keeping, and he told about Christmas last, Dora Hargrave, a young looking woman, testified that the accused gave her a watch, single cased gold watch, at Christmas time. He kept it a few days and then pawned or sold it to Jno. Rothschild, for $8.00. Officer Hammond had received information in regard to the watch at the time, and found it in the possession of Rothschild. The case was fully opened up, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

A LITTLE DISORDERLY.—Thus, Horsage got down at Portland, yesterday, and would become one on the Pacific, whether or no, despite almost exertions of officer Crowtoot to persuade. He had been insulted and wanted to fight back, but the peace had to be preserved, and back was required for one month.

THREE MORE DOWN DRUNK.—Wm. Foster, E. Thomas Whitney, and Thomas Leonard, separately arrested, and collectively presented for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Mr. Foster already a subject of the cage, Capt. Holcomb giving a pre-emption right to him for a year. Bail of $50 was required of Leonard for answer indictment for drunkenness. The fine 10 shillings, but the costs are—where?

know how much. The other case, White, is held to bail a month in $100.

THREE WOMEN IN WHISKY.—Ann Kelly, Mary Donan, sir, and Mary Riley, three very dirty women, were all very drunk, and disorderly. They got into a fight together. We suppose they were sent out where they could not do any mischief for a few weeks, which will rather kill 'em.

Important from Washington.
WASHINGTON, July 9.—The late Indian war between Oregon and Washington proves to be a can on the public treasury. The Secretary reports upwards of six thousand dollars were paid to Ross Brown alone, for salary and travel, during the year 1857, while examining into these "ists." This is only one item.
An interesting report has been received by

Ministry of the Treasury Department from Prof. Alexander, who is now in England, engaged in securing a uniformity for the two countries, as authorised by the last Congress. He says the decimal currency will be easily agreed upon by the Commission, and he is of opinion that the act of Congress of 1853, which provided for the decimal system, that there be no departure from the decimal system. Additional instructions will be given to Prof. A. in a few days.

The government is awaiting, anxiously, news from Mexico. It is rumored that Generals and Robert J. Walker are largely identified with Mr. Isham in his extensive surveys in Sonora, Chihuahua, and other Mexican States, and that efforts are being made to government to guarantee the faithful performance of these contracts, on the part of Mexico. In other words, to demand their performance. So far, I learn that Mr. Buchanan refuses re, and that the cars, without warning, would inevitably be thrown off into the river. She climbed in a skiff, and, as the train approached, succeeded in stopping it, thus saving, in the opinion of those on board, all the lives on the train. Instructions have been given, whenever a woman is on the train, to stop for her at such place as she finds most convenient for reaching her home.

TEMPORARY RETIREMENT FROM THE STAGE.—It is stated that Mrs. Barrow, of Boston, has retired from the stage, in consequence of an anticipated interesting event. Mrs. F. B. Conway, Mrs. J. A. Heron Stoepele, and Mrs. Susan Denin Hudson, are in retirement from the same cause. The house of E. L. Davenport has been preserved by a female heir, and Mrs. Julia Dean Haynes, on her late departure from St. Louis, took away with her a little Missouriian, a beautiful girl, who

The use of crinolines has received a severe check in Vienna. The actresses of the Carl Theater have been prohibited from wearing it, because an actress who, in the character of an orphan, is to have fainted away and fallen to the ground, it is impossible to realize the latter idea without something like nature, from being so strongly confined in her steel-bound frame work; so that had delicate sensibilities must give up fainting.

CONFERENCE ON TOBACCO.—The last North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Church agreed to the following resolution: Resolved, That no person be admitted as a member of this Conference who is in the habit of using tobacco in the common way, without an agreement to discontinue the practice.

Twelve persons were poisoned at Manch N. H., by eating cheese, and the symptoms resembled cholera. They all recovered.

as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colic, &c. Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Greenness, Bilious and Bleeding Piles, In all Nervous, Humoral and Venereal Affections, it has innumerable proved highly beneficial, and in others effectually cured.

It is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on the scientific principles taught by the manner of the celebrated Italian Professor, Balthazar Boncompagni, its use is common in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially to relieve the sufferings of the poor, and to the public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose vitality may have been impaired by the continuous of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the system, and, like the electric fluid, revivifies, rousing up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new strength and vigor in the system.

Whoever desires to find this a beverage as disappoining, but to the sick, weak and low spirits will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of all the essential properties of a tonic.

On account of the great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against. In purchasing, please observe the label, and until you have given Berthorpe's Holland Bitters a trial. One bottle will convince how infinitely superior these are to any other.
